Chatham Street
November 20 1837

Dear Sir

We have determined on a list of contributions forward ed for the purpose of sending a few copies of the Art Treasures Exhibition which were presented us by the Publishers. We are only sorry they came out this Exhibition with such success before your communication arrived I am sorry to say our collection was not so large as it might much trouble to the Managers & Arranging. Such as it is, we hope you will accept it with the same good will with which it is sent. There are three parcels for Mr Gillespie which we shall feel obliged by your forwarding when convenient Also, in a copy of the Art Treasures the commercial crisis has generally abated. I am glad to find difficulty in procuring any but their sympathy in Manchester and I only hope the effect may not have been felt in Glasgow & from other manufacturing towns & Edinburgh. I am glad to learn our receipts likely this year.

With you allow me to enclose you that one on A. A. Cook

Should you know any one wishing to send a young lady to an English home that would combine advantages only to be had in Paris Many of your Aunt Harvey friends in England & Miss Mackay & Mrs Worthy as well feel very grateful should you have an opportunity of sending her & this very dear Mrs Chapin what could be any pleasure
